My home town

By Mateo

Monday, 12th June

I'm from Córdoba, Argentina. It's a big city in the centre of Argentina. There are about 1.4 million people in Córdoba and it's Argentina's second city. It's an old city and there are some great places here.

Sarmiento Park is in the centre of the city and it is very big and beautiful. There's a big, modern amphitheatre in the park called The Greek Theatre. The city's Natural Science Museum and the zoo are also in the park.

There are lots of churches and museums in the city. The Cathedral on San Martín Square is awesome. It's over three hundred years old. There's a big statue of General San Martín in front of the cathedral, in the centre of the square.

My school is in my favourite neighbourhood, the centre. It is near the Manzana Jesuítica. It is in the old part of the city and there aren't any cars here. It's a fantastic place and it's now a World Heritage Site. Patio Olmos is also nearby. It's a great shopping centre. There are over a hundred and fifty shops and a cinema. 😊
