

On Screen C2-Unit 5b Phrasal verbs

Name:.....

1. Fill in the sentences with the correct phrasal verb.

Tied up fall back on face up to get away with get down to boil down to run up against get back at stand up to

- a. She's just going to have tothe fact that it isn't going to work out between them.
- b. I think he's trying toher for those mean remarks she made in the meeting.
- c. If I lose my job, I don't have anything toat the moment.
- d. I just don't get why Ben didn'tto his boss, especially because he knew he had done a great job.
- e. All their problemsone thing-the lack of money
- f. I've got a lot of work to do, but I can't seem toit.
- g. People from cultural or religious minorities oftenracism.
- h. They received a beautiful old-fashioned package, brown paper and string.
- i. Everyone think of him as the main suspect for the robbery, but it seems that he is going toit.