Where I live

It's difficult for young people to buy <sup>1</sup> a / an house in <sup>2</sup> the / - south of England because houses are very expensive. We're very lucky because we have <sup>3</sup> the / an old house in <sup>4</sup> the / a centre of <sup>5</sup> a / - nice village, but the average price of <sup>6</sup> - / a small house in our village is £250,000.

The village is small – <sup>7</sup> there are / there is one or two small shops, but <sup>8</sup> there aren't / there are any restaurants and <sup>9</sup> there aren't / there isn't a railway station here. Fortunately, we are near a big town called Basingstoke. Basingstoke has a shopping centre with lots of <sup>10</sup> the / - shops and restaurants. Opposite the shopping centre <sup>11</sup> there's / there are a railway station with fast trains to <sup>12</sup> the / - London.
