

FAMILY vocabulary

Insert a missing word.

1. Lucy is a(n) _____. Her parents died many years ago.
2. My mom remarried, gave birth to a boy and now I have a _____.
3. Robert is Ella's _____. They got married a year ago.
4. The _____ is wearing such a beautiful white dress!
5. Ron is my sister's fiancé so soon he will be my _____.
6. Our next-door _____ is a friendly old man.
7. My parents are going to celebrate their 25th wedding _____.
8. I have no siblings so I am a(n) _____ child.
9. After the wedding reception the bride and _____ left for their honeymoon.
10. Tom is going to _____ a party next weekend. Would you like to come?
11. The dinner's almost ready, so could you _____ the table, please?
12. Whenever I'm about to _____ the dog for a walk, she waits near the front door, looking excited.
13. He's so jealous! If he doesn't change, I'll _____ up with him!
14. We have no _____ gap in our family.
15. I think lying and lack of trust can _____ a friendship.
16. -Mia is expecting a boy! – Oh, I didn't know she was _____.
17. Kids want to _____ up as soon as possible.
18. Do you _____ on with your sisters?
19. I had a very happy _____, my parents were very understanding and loving.
20. – You are such a great _____! – Actually, we're not together, we're just friends.

