

Vocabulary

The people below all want to go to the cinema. Below are descriptions of eight films. Decide which film would be the most suitable for each person or people. For questions 1-5, choose the correct letter (A-H).

A The Plank

Jason Smith stars in this well-known comedy about two workmen who have to deliver a long piece of wood to a house. But unfortunately, the performances are not very good, and the film is too long for such a simple joke.

B The Law in Danger

A fast-moving adult story about New York police in danger. Based on a real-life story, it keeps you guessing right until the last minute. Although there are no big stars, there are some great performances.

C To the End of the World

A story based on a real-life journey to the North Pole. This film contains some quite wonderful wildlife photograph - make sure you see it while you have the chance, or you'll be sorry.

D Escape from the Island

You get spectacular scenery and lots of thrills in this action-packed story, in which a young captain rescues terrified villagers from a volcanic island in the South Pacific.

E Teenager in Trouble

Here we live through a day in the life of a British teenager who has problems not only with his parents and their boring friends but also with his first girlfriend who just doesn't seem to understand him.

F Have ever after

Don't forget your handkerchief for this story of a young college boy and girl who manage to survive all the pressures of modern life. And what an unforgettable wedding scene!

G Saving the Sheep

A really funny comedy, which takes place in the 1990s. A reporter and his very worried wife try to save a sheep from the local butcher. The actors really make the most of this clever script.

H Who Shot Perry?

It's a surprise to see so many famous names wasting their time in this dull detective. In the end, you find yourself asking. 'Who cares?'
