Three weeks after Anne's birthday, on 5 July 1942, a call-up notice arrives. The call-up does not come as a complete surprise to Anne's parents: since early 1942 Otto Frank has already been making preparations to go into hiding.

D. A CALL-UP...

"At three o' clock. . . the doorbell rang. I didn't hear it, since I was out on the balcony, lazily reading in the sun. A little while later Margot appeared in the kitchen doorway looking very agitated. 'Father has received a call-up notice from the SS', she whispered. . . I was stunned. A call-up: everyone knows what that means. Visions of concentration camps and lonely cells raced through my head." Anne Frank

PACKING TO HIDE

In 1942 Anne wrote in her diary about the moment she had to pack her satchel before going into hiding.

The first thing I put in was this diary, then hair curlers, handkerchiefs, schoolbooks, a comb, old letters; I put in the craziest things with the idea that we were going into hiding. But I'm not sorry, memories mean more to me than dresses. Anne Frank

Anne says: 'memories mean more to me than dresses.' What do you think she means by this?
