

Let's Practice

1. Read about Daniel's experience. Choose between Simple Past, Past Progressive or Past Perfect.

First day working for Google company

Daniel graduated / had graduated two months ago as a graphic designer at Princeton; and, he celebrated / had celebrated with his relatives and friends. However, there was still something to achieve...

He applied / had applied for a job post a year before he graduated to get an internship at Google. It was / had been his dream job since his first year at college.

Three weeks ago, he had / was having lunch when he received / had received a call from a kind woman telling he had been chosen to start working for Google.

Immediately, he went shopping for a new outfit and got / had gotten ready for his first day. He really wanted / was wanting to make a good impression. He got up / was getting up very early and went / was going to the office. He realized he left / had left his phone at home when he was on the bus. He felt nervous, and thought / had thought that his first day was going to be a disaster.

Nevertheless, it was his best day ever. Everything was unexpected. In fact, he didn't work / wasn't working at all. He met his co-workers and they hung out / had hung out all morning. He felt comfortable and excited...

2. Daniel has to organize his agenda. Choose the correct option to complete the following sentences with future forms:

Next Tuesday morning, I WILL HAVE HAD / WILL BE HAVING brunch with my co-workers at Tiffany's.

Next Friday, I AM SEEING / WILL SEE my boss at 7 pm.

I believe I AM GOING TO GET / WILL GET an assignment next week.

Following my plans, I AM GOING TO JOIN / WILL JOIN the designing department tomorrow.

Our boss believes we ARE GOING TO LEAVE / WILL LEAVE the office early today.

As I really want to meet my co-workers, I WILL INVITE / AM GOING TO INVITE them to my place next week.

According to a recent survey, we ARE GOING TO IMPROVE / WILL IMPROVE our products.

By the time July finishes, I WILL HAVE FINISHED / WILL FINISH my first designing project.

3. Brunch time at work. Read this conversation between Daniel and one of his co-workers. Choose the correct option (Future in the past)

- Daniel: I was going to leave / will be leaving early today, but then I was assigned a small task. So, here I'm. What are you doing, Bob?

- Bob: I knew you were going to stay / would stay. That's what happened to me on my first week too.

- Daniel: How long have you been working here?

- Bob: Well, I think it's about six years. I would change / was going to change my job last year, but then I decided to stay. I believe I really love working here...

- Daniel: Were you going to / Will you leave the company?

- Bob: Not really, our managers were going to send me / would send me to another place. However, it didn't happen...

- Daniel: That's positive, you know. Now, you're here to help me...

4. Take a look at Daniel's Facebook profile... Read the post and choose between Past Simple and Present Perfect Simple.

Daniel Taylor
Graphic Designer
Studied at Princeton

- I was born / have been born in 1985
- I lived / have lived in New Jersey for the last 5 years and graduated / have graduated two months ago.
- I met / have met Bob last week. We didn't go out / haven't gone out yet.
- My boss gave / has given me many pieces of advice yesterday.
- I never travelled / have never travelled abroad. I hope I can do it soon...
- My parents were / have been teachers for the last 10 years. They're amazing people.
- I took / have taken graphic art design courses for the last three months.
- Did you ever / Have you ever created something artistic? I love designing artistic pieces.

