

Primary 3/4

Week 6

The Write Tribe

AN UNLUCKY DAY

PART 2

Conflict

- Ease into the situation.
- Create anticipation before introducing the problem
- Slowly introduce the dilemma. Why was it a problem?
- Personal thoughts
- Feelings

|                    |                     |                   |                               |
|--------------------|---------------------|-------------------|-------------------------------|
| as blind as a bat  | as fat as a pig     | as bald as a coot |                               |
| as black as coal   | as busy as a bee    | as sly as a fox   |                               |
| as brave as a lion | as bent as a sickle | as cold as ice    | as alike as two peas in a pod |

Anticipation

1. That was when we heard something, I would never forget
2. Nothing could prepare me for the next moment
3. I wasn't prepared for what would happen next
4. That was when I realized, I made a blunder.
5. What I saw turned my legs to lead.

Personal thoughts

How could I be so careless?
How can I be so unlucky?

Conflict - 15 minutes

Climax

The most exciting part of your story

Slow down the action by describing everything in detail, showing emotions and using personal thoughts

Escalate the problem - THE PROBLEM INTENSIFIES!

Intensify the problem

1. My heart raced as I realized I had to do something quick.
2. If I didn't do _____, I will be dead meat!
3. The thought of _____ exacerbated my worst fear!

Before solving the problem, show feelings and personal thoughts

I sweated profusely as I _____.

Then, solve the problem

Fast as a race car, I _____.

-Proverb

| Proverbs                                      | Meanings   |
|---|--|
| It's never too late to mend            | It's never too late to change bad habits   |
| The early bird catches the worm        | The person who is always early gets the best things.   |
| There is no use crying over spilt milk | Simply put, this proverb means, "what's done is done." Accidents happen and sometimes things do not go the way we wanted them to go. You cannot worry about these things too much. Just clean up the mess, be calm, and move on. |

Anticipation

1. Nothing could prepare me for the next moment
2. I wasn't prepared for what would happen next

Lesson learnt

I learnt an important lesson. I should _____ . (End with a proverb)
