

READINGA. Read the text and find the information below.

Do you have eggs for breakfast? Breakfast is an important meal because good food gives you energy for your day. Eggs give you energy, so they are a popular breakfast food around the world.

In Russia, there are often eggs for breakfast. Sandwiches, pancakes and kasha - a type of cereal - are popular, too. People usually have tea or coffee with breakfast.

Eggs are popular for breakfast in England. A "traditional" English breakfast has got eggs with sausages, beans, potatoes and tomatoes, but these days, people sometimes have a small breakfast with cereal, bread, orange juice and tea or coffee.

Eggs, bread and coffee aren't popular in China. There's bing - a type of pancake and there's tang - a type of soup. They've got a cereal called zhou, too.

There are many different types of breakfasts around the world, but eggs or no eggs, breakfast is an important meal.

1. Pancakes are popular in these two countries: and
2. These are two types of cereal: and
3. These drinks are popular for breakfast in England: and
4. Soup is popular for breakfast in this country:
5. Bread is often part of breakfast in these two countries: and VOCABULARYA. Fill the words. There is one extra word.

curly • tenth • clever • nine • brother • watermelons • brown • younger

My (1) Albert is a very clever boy. He's (2) years old, but he's very tall. He's (3) , too, even though he is (4) than me. He's got (5) eyes and (6) black hair. He likes eating (7) and strawberries.

B. Match the words with their opposites.

1. tall ____	a. small
2. pretty ____	b. slow
3. clever ____	c. expensive
4. big ____	d. silly
5. old ____	e. ugly
6. fast ____	f. nice
7. bad ____	g. young
8. cheap ____	h. short

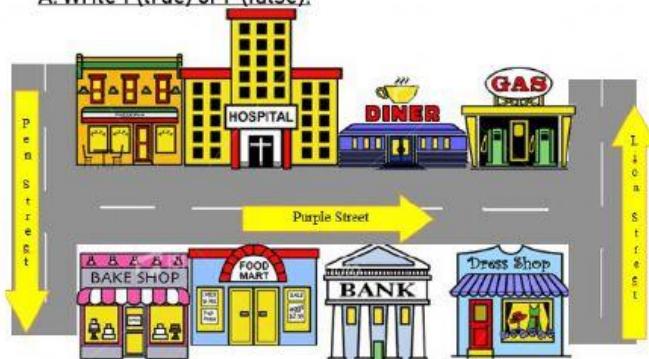

C. Choose and write: meat - sugar - onion - strawberry - beans - cucumber - cabbage

D. Choose.

1. I'm scared / excited of spiders.
2. You can buy vegetables at the transport / market.
3. I go to the gym once / twice a week, on Mondays and on Fridays.
4. I write in my diary / realtives every night.
5. I have to wash my clothes if I want them to be dirty / clean.
6. Just Bieber is a friendly / famous singer.
7. My Grandpa grows / throws potatoes in his garden.

GRAMMAR

A. Write T (true) or F (false).

1. The bank is between the Food Mart and the Dress Shop.
2. The Diner is opposite the hospital.
3. The Bake shop is on the corner of Pen Street and Lion Street.
4. The Food Mart is next to the Bake Shop.
5. The Hospital is between the Diner and the Gas station.

B. Read and write.

can - how - next to - turn - straight - where's

TOM: Excuse me. _____ you help me?

MR. JONES: Of course. _____ can I help?

TOM: _____ Grove Park?

MR. JONES: You have to _____ left at the hospital. Then you go _____ on along Pine Street. It's _____ the river.

TOM: OK, thanks.

C. How does Mary go to school? Use always, usually, sometimes or never and the word in parentheses.

	M	T	W	T	F
bus	✓ car
walk with friends		✓	✓	✓	✓
walk with brother	✓	✓

1. Mary _____ (get) the bus to school.

2. She _____ (go) by car.

3. She _____ (walk) to school with her friends.

4. Mary's brother _____ (go) to school with her and her friends.

D. Write what's true about you.

1. I read books. _____ / do, too. _____

2. I always do my homework. _____

3. My mum drives me to school. _____

4. My dad plays baseball. _____

WRITING

Write sentences about yourself or your friends and family.

1. (always)

.....

2. (sometimes)

.....

3. (and)

.....

4. (but)

.....

5. (never)

.....

6. (have to)