

FINDING FRIENDS ON THE INTERNET

There has recently been a popular trend of finding friends abroad on the Internet as a way of (39)_____ language skills and learning more about the way of life in other countries. Before the Internet era, pen pals used to be the main source for a communication like that, and students shared their news or ideas via writing each (40)_____ letters. With the World Wide Web, finding friends (41)_____ much easier, and such relationships are now called keypals.

(42)_____, when you find friends on the Internet you should be careful and attentive.

(43)_____ the Internet for services of good reputation. Look (44)_____ reviews of such sites to find out more about other people's experiences. Don't join a service before you have done your research.

You'd better use a nickname, rather (45)_____ your real name, to protect your identity.

Never give personal information to anyone, (46)_____ your home address, phone number, and birthday.

Terminate contact with a person if you feel (47)_____ with the topics of conversation. Again, if you protect your identity, this will be easier to do. Tell your teachers, parents, or even local law enforcement if problems arise.

Try to use the language you are studying in the classroom in your communications with others. Ask appropriate questions that will also help you learn about other cultures. Remember that one's personal experience might be just that: to understand a whole culture, you (48)_____ to talk to many people, but this will get you started.
