• Home Exchange in Costa Rica

A home exchange is a good way to take a vacation. It's cheaper than a hotel and more exciting than a visit to your relatives. The Lee family is staying in a house in Lake Arenal, Costa Rica.

“This house is larger than our house in Seattle. I like the balcony, and the living room is great. The most disappointing thing is the kitchen. It's the smallest room in the house. But overall, I really like the house.”
Maureen, 45

“This is the most exciting place in the world! Costa Rica is more interesting than the U.S. And it's hotter. I love it! The best thing about this house is the balcony.”
Marcus, 14

2 What does each person think? Put a checkmark (y) if he or she likes the object and an (x) if he or she doesn't like it.
