

Choose the correct option.

Jensen and Justin were brothers. They ^{a) liked} adventures and they were good at solving puzzles.
^{b) watched}
^{c) played}

They ^{a) wanted} to be detectives like their grandfather. They ^{a) slipped} their Grandpa, so they ^{a) listened} ^{b) tried} ^{b) loved} ^{b) knocked} ^{c) worked} ^{c) arrived} ^{c) walked} more than 6 miles every day just to hear his old stories. Once they were hiding from grandpa when they ^{a) liked} a secret room in his house. They were very excited and curious, so they ^{a) jumped} ^{b) discovered} ^{b) cleaned}

^{c) cleaned} ^{c) called} into the room. On the wall in front of them, there was a big picture of an old ship. Its name was Marie Celeste. At that moment, Grandpa ^{a) received} and ^{a) decided} to tell them the story of one of ^{b) appeared} ^{b) explained}

^{c) listened} ^{c) tripped}

the great mysteries of the world. He ^{a) listened} that the Marie Celeste never ^{a) needed} at its destiny.
^{b) explained} ^{b) arrived}
^{c) wanted} ^{c) used}

This ship ^{a) received} in the middle of the Atlantic Ocean with nobody on it in 1872. There was food on ^{b) spelled}
^{c) appeared} the table and everything was in order. Even today nobody knows what ^{a) called} to the people that ^{b) happened}

^{c) received}

were on the ship. What's your opinion?