Mel and Pam are best friends.
They love travelling.
Let's work with them!

READING

1. Last month, Mel visited the Hollywood Wax Museum. Read about this amazing place:

Your favorite Hollywood stars are waiting for you at Hollywood Wax Museum!

Three weeks ago, I visited an incredible place with my classmates; it was a wax museum in Los Angeles.

We got there by bus with our Science teacher: Mr. Jordan. It wasn't a long trip; so, we sang and listened to music with the bus driver, who was a friendly man called Jay.

When we arrived to Los Angeles, Mr. Jordan decided to go to a big restaurant to have lunch before visiting the wax museum. I ate a delicious cheese burger with fries. After lunch, we bought the tickets and waited for half an hour because many students from different cities were waiting to enter the museum. We were very excited to finally be there!

I took a lot of pics with my phone, of course. In some cool pics I am standing by my favorite character Jack Sparrow. I uploaded them on my Instagram account. My friend Pam saw them and thought it was the real Jack Sparrow!

My classmates' favorite wax figure was Michael Jackson. It was fantastic! We had a great time in Los Angeles. I hope we go back there soon.
