

Complete the email with the verbs in brackets in the present simple, the present continuous, past simple or past continuous.

Hi Jack,

Hope you are well. I _____ (write) to you from Liverpool! We _____ (stay) in the city centre. Our room _____ (have) a great view over the city. I can see the River Mersey and some famous buildings. I _____ (emphatic- love) this place. At the moment I _____ (have) a cup of tea on the rooftop terrace. English people _____ (drink) tea all the time here, even with their meals! It's very strange!

Last Friday, we _____ (go) to visit Anfield, the home of Liverpool FC, and I wanted to take some photos. While we _____ (take) photographs, Jane, my sister _____ (fall) from the top of the stairs and _____ (hurt) her leg. We _____ (take) her to the hospital. But you won't believe this, while we _____ (drive) to the hospital, we _____ (have) an accident. We _____ (run) over a cat. Fortunately, it was not seriously injured. Jane _____ (break) a bone, that is why she hasn't left the hospital yet. I _____ (phone) her two hours ago and she is leaving the hospital tomorrow.

Today, it's a lovely day and the sun _____ (shine).

I _____ (know) you always watch English football so I _____ (think) I will buy your present there.

It _____ (get) late so I will stop now.

See you soon!

Jenny