COMPUTER ETHICS

Choose the correct option from the following choices.

1	refers to the rules and standards one need to
follow while u	using the computer and the Internet.
2	device are common means of tracking our online
behaviour on	the Internet.
3	is an electronic text file that a website places on your computer wh	en you visit the site.
4	are very small graphics, usually invisible to the user,
placed in web	pages or e-mail messages.
5. Software th	nat secretly collects personal information of users is known as
6	refers the protection of a computer's Internet
account and f	iles from being accessed by an unknown user.
7	is a program or hardware device that filters the
information c	oming through the Internet into your computer.
8	is a program used to detect and eliminate any
viruses or wo	rms trying to infect your computer.
9	antivirus program have in-built anti-spyware
program with	in it.
10	device is used to backups of the important files
on your comp	nuter