

Simple present and Simple past

87

Look at what the children do every summer and what they did last summer. Then, complete the passage.

	Every summer	Last summer
I	read a lot of books	<input type="checkbox"/> read a lot of books <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> travel with my family
Jane	visit my grandparents	<input type="checkbox"/> visit my grandparents <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> take swimming lessons
Paul and Amy	go to a science fair	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> go to a science fair <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> try scuba diving

I usually a lot of books every summer. But last summer, I any books. Instead, I with my family. Jane her grandparents every summer. But last summer, she them because she swimming lessons every day. Paul and Amy go to a science fair every summer. They there last summer, too. They also scuba diving.