Past Participles Practice

Each pair of sentences uses a verb with a similar past participle structure.

Example: He's _fallen_ over and now he can't move. fall
The ambulance has _taken_ him to hospital take

Fill in the gaps, using the past participle form of the verbs.

1. What's wrong with Mark? He's _____ his arm. hurt
2. I've _____ my own hair. It's a bit messy. cut

3. We don't have any money. We've _____ all of it. spend
4. We can't go home, we've _____ our tickets. lose

5. They aren't strangers. They've _____ before. meet
6. He feels great. He's _____ for 12 hours. sleep

7. Andrew has _____ a cake for the class to eat. bring
8. The teacher has _____ the present perfect. teach

9. Daniela has _____ her nose twice playing rugby. break
10. We have _____ blue tiles for the bathroom. choose

11. Have you ever _____ a motorbike? ride
12. They have _____ my present somewhere in the house. hide

13. Are you full? You've _____ four pizzas. eat
14. I'm sorry, teacher. I've _____ how to spell the word. forget

15. I've _____ my brother since I was born. know
16. David is very tall. He's _____ quickly. grow

17. Hurry! The film has already _____. begin
18. I've never _____ in the sea. It's too cold. swim

19. Gary has _____ 10 marathons this year. run
20. After a long winter, spring has _____ again. come

STRANGE EXCEPTIONS

21. Have you _____ enough to eat? have
22. Benfica have _____ Sporting. Again. beat
23. They've _____ here for three hours. I think they're bored. be
24. I don't know where Mum is. I think she's _____ shopping. go
25. Ricky looks tanned. Has he _____ on holiday again? go