Past Participles Practice

Each pair of sentences uses a verb with a similar past participle structure.

Examp	le: He's fallen over and now he can't move.	fall
	The ambulance has taken him to hospital	take
Fill in	the gaps, using the past participle form of the verbs.
1.	What's wrong with Mark? He's his arm.	hurt
	I've my own hair. It's a bit messy.	cut
3.	We don't have any money. We've all of it.	spend
4.	We can't go home, we've our tickets.	lose
	They aren't strangers. They've before.	meet
6.	He feels great. He's for 12 hours.	sleep
	Andrew has a cake for the class to eat.	bring
8.	The teacher has the present perfect.	teach
	Daniela has her nose twice playing rugby.	break
10.	. We have blue tiles for the bathroom.	choose
	. Have you ever a motorbike?	ride
12.	. They have my present somewhere in the house.	hide
13.	. Are you full? You've four pizzas.	eat
14.	. I'm sorry, teacher. I've how to spell the word.	forget
	. I've my brother since I was born.	know
16.	David is very tall. He's quickly.	grow
	. Hurry! The film has already	begin
18.	. I've never in the sea. It's too cold.	swim
	. Gary has 10 marathons this year.	run
20.	After a long winter, spring has again.	come
STRAN	GE EXCEPTIONS
	. Have you enough to eat?	have
	Benfica have Sporting. Again.	beat
	They've here for three hours. I think they're bored.	be
	. I don't know where Mum is. I think she's shopping.	go
25	Ricky looks tanned. Has he on holiday again?	90