

Look at these sentences and click on the correct word that completes them.

1. “The Imitation game’ is an historical/historic movie based on the historical/historic events of WWII
2. When I ask for their advice/advise they always advice/advise me to be cautious.
3. She’s usually a sensible/sensitive person that discusses matters reasonably, but that particular topic is a sensible/sensitive one.
4. Breath/Breathe calmly and take your time catching your breath/breathe.
5. His childish/childlike jokes bore me, but I adore the sound of his childish/childlike laughter.
6. My mom is an excellent cooker/cook who loves to experiment. You can often find her hovering over the cooker/cook.
7. He has many horrible/horrific memories about the horrible/horrific scenes he witnessed during the war.
8. I used the free practise/practice time to practise/practice my pirouettes.
9. The murderer/murder was committed by a copycat of the original murderer/murder.
10. You won the award? Those are terrible/terrific news! Even if they came during the terrible/terrific pandemic.