

Let's revise!

Say if the following sentences about life processes of animals and plants are true or false.

In animals, the interaction is carried out using the locomotor and nervous system.

☐ True ☐ False

Animals use their locomotor system to reproduce and create new member of their own species.

☐ True ☐ False

Plants can reproduce by producing seeds, special special cells called spores or capsules.

☐ True ☐ False

Animals can be classified into into three types depending on their type of sexual reproduction.

☐ True ☐ False

The roots of the plants grow towards sunlight and the leaves grow towards water and nutrients in the soil.

☐ True ☐ False

Plant cells make their own food using photosynthesis.

☐ True ☐ False

