

WRITING PRACTICE 1

word count: 100

You are invited for your best friend's wedding but you are traveling onsite on the same day. Write an email to your best friend congratulating the couple and apologizing for not attending his/her wedding. Explain your situation how important is this on-site opportunity to you.

word count: 250

Some people like to spend their money as soon as they earn it, while others think it is better to save their money for some time in the future. Which do you prefer? Use specific reasons and examples to support your opinion. Do not use memorized examples.
