

Click and watch. Then, label the animals and their parts of body.

elephant turtle rhinoceros stripe nostril flipper horn tail tusk trunk

Drag and drop the description of animals to the corresponding boxes.

Animals	appearance	food	Abilities/ disabilities
Tiger
leatherback turtle			Adult females return faithfully to nest on the very beach where they were born.
rhinoceros	Has a long horn and a short horn.
elephant			Can recognize 12 distinct tones of music and recreate melodies.

Stripe patten on the forehead looks like the Chinese character 'wang' (meaning 'king').

Eat up to 50 kilogrammes of leaves a day.

The largest sea turtle.

Eat up to 40 kilogrammes of meat at one time.

Feed mainly on jellyfish.

The largest land animal.

Can hear and smell very well but cannot see well.

Can see, smell and hear very well. At night can see six times better than human can.

Eat up to 150 kilogrammes of grass and bananas a day.