The Nightingale and the Rose (Quiz 1)

I Choose the best answer for each question

1. the quality, state, or condition of being bright.

A. deed
B. reach
C. brightness
D. nightingale

2. excellent in quality, skill, character, or nature.

A. thorn
B. nightingale
C. reach
D. fine

3. to arrive at.

A. fine
B. reach
C. fill
D. wise

4. a small migratory thrush with drab brownish plumage, noted for its rich melodious song which can often be heard at night.

A. thorn
B. deed
C. nightingale
D. fill

5. to cause to become full; put as much as possible into.

A. wise
B. nightingale
C. reach
D. fill

6. having an understanding of that which is true or good together with sound judgment.

A. brightness
B. fine
C. wise
D. fill

7. a short, spiny protrusion on a plant stem or branch.

A. reach
B. nightingale
C. thorn
D. wise

8. an act, exploit, or accomplishment.

A. brightness
B. reach
C. fine
D. deed

II Match the beginning (1-18) and ending (A-R) of each sentence from the first section of The Nightingale and the Rose.

Sentences A	Sentences B	Answer
1. I will dance with you	A. and I will sing you my sweetest song.	1.
2. I have studied everything	B. and my love will dance to the music.	2.
3. But my life is unhappy	C. and the heart of a man is more important than the heart of a bird.	3.
4. Love is happiness to me,	D. and your life blood must run into me and become mine.	4.
5. The musicians will play	E. because I cannot give her a red rose.	5.
6. But she will not dance with me	F. because I have no red rose.	6.
7. There was a beautiful rose tree	G. because she has no true feelings.	7.
8. When the nightingale saw it,	H. but her song does not mean anything.	8.
9. Give me a red rose	I. but I do not want to tell you about it.	9.
10. There is a way	J. but it is pain to him.	10.
11. If you want a red rose,	K. if you bring me a red rose.	11.
12. You must sing to me all night	L. not about other people.	12.
13. The thorn must cut open your heart	M. she flew down to it.	13.
14. Love is more important that life,	N. standing in the center of another garden.	14.
15. I shall be sad and alone	O. that wise men have written.	15.
16. Her voice is beautiful	P. when you go.	16.
17. It is not really useful	Q. with your heart pressed against a thorn.	17.
18. She thinks only of her music	R. you must build it out of music by moonlight.	18.

III Character + characteristic + examples

1. A character that I will never forget is _____because _____.

For example, _____.

2. A character that I feel sorry for the most is _____ because _____.

For example, _____.

IV. Continue the sentence

1 When the nightingale hears the boy speaking of his need for a red rose, she…

.....

.....

.....

V. Answer the question

1 What happened when the nightingale went to the rose tree that night? Tell the story.

2 Why didn't the girl want the student's rose?

3 How did the student feel about love at the end of the story?