

FUTURES

- Find examples of each future form in the conversation below

1 2

3

4

5 6

Tenses: will/ going to / present continuous / present simple / shall / let's

- Decide which meaning is being used

A

B

C

D

E

Uses: spontaneous decisions / predictions / threats / promises / offers /

F

G

H

J

planned decisions /personal arrangements / timetables / suggestions

Jacky: "Hi Clare! How are you? I haven't seen you for a while."

3 G

Clare: "Hi Jacky. I'm fine thanks. Anyway, listen, are you doing anything tonight?"

Jacky: "No. Why?"

Clare: "Well, I'm having a party. Everyone will be there. Would you like to come?"

Jacky: "OK. I will. What time is it going to start?"

Clare: "Well, everyone finishes work around 6 o'clock so they'll probably be there around 8."

Jacky: "OK great! Shall I ring Bob and ask him?"

Clare: "Good idea. Let's ring him now."

Jacky: "Hi Bob, it's Jacky. Clare's having a party tonight. Do you want to come?"

Everyone will be there. I'll pick you up if you want."

Bob: "Oh no! It's really tricky tonight. I'm going to write a report. It's already late and my boss will kill me if it's not done by tomorrow. I promise I'll try and come along later OK?"

Jacky: "Alright. We'll see you later then. Bye."