

1 - Complete the course description below with the words and expressions from the box below:

tasks - writing skills - legal writing - researching and writing

Lewis & Clark Law School

About | Admissions | Academics | Faculty | Student Life | Library | Career Services

Law Courses Catalog

Advanced Legal Writing: Litigation

This summer [] course will offer students an opportunity to continue to develop their research and [] through gaining experience with a wider variety of litigation-related writing []. Assignments may include an email memo, an advice or demand letter, and an evidentiary or other pretrial motion. These assignments will help students develop strategies for [] efficiently under time pressure and will expose students to common procedural and evidentiary issues that arise in many litigation matters. This course satisfies the WIE requirement.

Course evaluation will be based on a combination of class participation and completion of several written assignments. Students will receive a letter grade for this course. This course does not have a final exam.

Evidentiary

of or relating to evidence; evidential

Liability

being in a situation where one is likely to meet with harm

Interim

intended to last, continue, or serve for a limited time

pretrial

A proceeding held before an official trial, especially to clarify points of law and facts

2 - Now do the same with the description for this second course:

obligations - law firm - professional liability - structures and logistics

Law Courses Catalog

Law Practice Management

Law Practice Management - Assistant Dean Devra Hermosilla

- Course Number: LAW-497
- Course Type: Foundational
- Credits: 2
- Enrollment Limit: Determined by the Registrar
- Description: The course provides a practical view of how to start, operate, and manage your legal practice – with a focus on [] and solo practice, while also incorporating other practice settings. Topics explored include: understanding practice fundamentals, law practice as a business, law firm [], financial management, timekeeping, billing, and trust accounts, marketing plans, client management, human resources, practice tools and technology, issues surrounding professionalism and reputation management, common ethical issues and [], key resources for Oregon attorneys, and the basics of risk management and []. Students will explore course topics by researching and drafting interim assignments and a small firm/solo business practice plan, which will be submitted at the end of the course. Class participation individually and in groups is strongly encouraged. While particularly relevant to students planning on a career in small firm or solo practice, this course will benefit any new attorney. Graded on a CR/NC basis.
- Prerequisite: none
- Evaluation Method: Final project; class participation
- Capstone: no
- WIE: no

https://law.clark.edu/courses/catalog/law_497.php

https://law.clark.edu/courses/catalog/law_214.php