How charged objects behave.

1 Select the correct answer.

A_ Objects with opposite charges are....

attracted	repelled

B_ Objects with same charges are....

attracted	repelled

C_ What is an electric force?

Is the space around the electrically charged objects	Is the push or pull between objects with opposite charges
Is the negative particles from your hair

D_ What happened if you rub a blow up balloon on your head?

It picks up negative particles	It picks up positive particles	Nothing happens

2 Match the sentences:

• Objects with opposite charged	is the push or pull between objects with opposite charges.
• An electric force	are attracted to each other.
• An object with a charge	pieces of paper will stick to the balloon.
• If you rub a blow-up balloon on your head	can attract something without a charge.