

Confusing Words

Choose the correct word.

1. It is a beautiful sight/ site. Many people would like to live there.
2. It is a beautiful sight/ site. Many people take photographs as soon as they see it.
3. My favourite desert/dessert is the Sahara.
4. My favourite desert/dessert is ice cream.
5. Soldiers must not desert/dessert their posts.
6. I must remind/remember my boss to call the office.
7. I must remind/remember to call the office.
8. His passionate speech about community is likely to compel/impel people to take part in the project.
9. The new Community Action Law will compel/impel people to take part in the project.
10. We want a sauna to complement/compliment the swimming pool.
11. We simply had to complement/compliment them on their choice of food.
12. This vehicle is especially/specially designed for cold weather.
13. I would especially/specially like to thank Wendy for attending at such short notice.
14. The lawyer asked the judge not to set such a high bail/bale as the accused didn't have much money.
15. She was born/borne at about 2 o'clock in the morning.
16. She was born/borne away by friends at about 2 o'clock in the morning.
17. We need to canvas/canvass our customers to find out which brand they prefer.
18. The canvas/canvass of the tent was torn, so we got wet when it rained.
19. The climactic/climatic end to the novel is truly memorable.
20. Under certain climactic/climatic conditions, mosquitos increase in number.