

The Smartest Giant in Town

Put the story in order.

	He started singing and hopping and his trousers fell down. He was the coldest giant in town.
	He met many animals. First, a sad giraffe that was really cold. So George gave the giraffe his tie. The giraffe had a new scarf.
	The animals gave George a card and a golden paper crown. At the end, he became the kindest giant in town.
	The giant heard a mouse shouting because its house was burning. The little mouse and his family didn't have where to live. So the giant gave them a shiny shoe.
1	George, the giant, always wore the same clothes. One day he bought smart clothes and became the smartest giant in town.
	He went back to the shop but it was closed, so he cried. Near the shop he found a bag with his old clothes. He put them on. He was happy again!
