Unit 7: Vocabulary A

Complete this profile of Garry Kasparov with the correct words. When you're done, tell a partner who he is and what makes him such an exceptional chess player.

1. Scientists, computer experts, and other intellectuals / masters have often wondered: Who is smarter, man or machine?
   - ○ intellectuals
   - ○ masters
2. Garry Kasparov, a Russian chess intellectual / master who has a natural instinct / strategy for the game, attempted to answer this question.
   - ○ intellectual
   - ○ master
3. Garry Kasparov, a Russian chess intellectual / master who has a natural instinct / strategy for the game, attempted to answer this question.
   - ○ instinct
   - ○ strategy
4. His aptitude / outcome for chess, a game of streetsmarts / strategy, was discovered at a young age.
   - ○ aptitude
   - ○ outcome
5. His aptitude / outcome for chess, a game of street smarts / strategy, was discovered at a young age.
   - ○ street smarts
   - ○ strategy

6. As a teenager he excelled / worked out at the game, and by age twenty-two he had become the youngest World Champion ever.
   - ○ excelled
   - ○ worked out
7. In chess, players have to accomplish / work out solutions for each move they make; they have to plan several moves ahead using outcomes / common sense and logic.
   - ○ accomplish
   - ○ work out

8. In chess, players have to accomplish / work out solutions for each move they make; they have to plan several moves ahead using outcomes / common sense and logic. Garry's outstanding ability to do this quickly helped him become one of the greatest chess players in history.

- ○ outcomes
- ○ common sense

9. In 1996, Garry played against a computer named Deep Blue, which was able to analyze fifty billion moves in three minutes. No one could have possibly predicted the outcome / strategy.

- ○ outcome
- ○ strategy

10. To everyone's surprise, Garry accomplished / worked out his goal of beating Deep Blue.

- ○ accomplished
- ○ worked out