

READING TASK

ACTIVITY 1 SKIING

You are going to read an article about skiing. For gaps 1-5 choose the answer (A-D) which best fits each gap. Only ONE answer is correct.

Skiing is one of the most popular sports in the world. According to recent estimates, about one hundred million people ski regularly 1| | occasionally. Sliding across the snow on skis is also one of the most ancient methods of transport known to man. It has been demonstrated that men were 2| | travelling across the snow by means of primitive skis before the invention of the wheel. In the Asiatic region of Altai and in Scandinavia, 3| | , the remains of skis have been found which date back to 4,000 BC. Further evidence is supplied by ancient cave paintings which depict people skiing, and a Norwegian saga which tells the story of an invasion of its territory 8,000 years ago by a tribe of skiers who came from the north. 4| | , skiing, apart from being a sport, has become a big industry and a notable feature of leisure culture. Ski resorts and all the activity that they generate are the main source of wealth in many mountain regions, which were 5| | remote and inaccessible. And far from its once elitist image, skiing is now enjoyed by an increasingly broader spectrum of society.

ACTIVITY 2 MY CHILDHOOD MEMORY

You are going to read somebody's childhood memory. For questions 1-10 choose the correct answer A, B or C. Only ONE answer is correct.

I remember it like yesterday. We were all waiting for my father to come home from the race track. He promised me and my sister that if he won, he would take us all to Rye Playland Amusement Park. The minutes felt like hours. It was the longest hour of my life. Then, finally, we heard the car door shut. We and my sister ran to the front door anxiously waiting for the news. He opened the door and walked in. We tried to read the expression on his face but of course he was looking down while taking his trainers off. The suspense was killing us. Then he looked up. No words were spoken between us and our father. He just gave us a blank stare. I didn't know what to think. I was scared to ask because I was so worried of the response. It was that moment when he said to us, "Well kids, pick out what you are going to wear to Rye Playland this weekend." Excitement just jumped throughout my whole body. We both ran over and gave him the biggest hug and ran upstairs to pick out what we were going to bring with us. I was so excited for the next two days that I probably only got about 4 hours' sleep. Then the day finally came. It was Saturday.

It was the only time in my life I was happy to hear the alarm clock go off. Of course I had already been awake for two hours before it actually went off, but I waited anyway. I jumped out of bed and ran into my sister's room. We both then leaped into bed with our parents to wake them up. They acted like they didn't know what we were talking about, but we didn't give them the chance to trick us. Me and my sister then ran into our rooms picking out what we were going to take with us for the hour-and-half-long car ride. I brought my favourite book and my game boy. I picked out my favourite outfit and ran back into my parents' room and asked when we were leaving. I was so relieved to see them already packing the car up with the cool bag. My mom bought all my favourite juices and made our favourite sandwiches for lunch. When we finally set off I felt relieved and ready to spend what, we all hoped, would be an unforgettable holiday. We had a fantastic journey. However, once in Rye Playland, things didn't turn out as we expected but that's another story and will be told another time.
