

Choose the correct preposition to fill in the blanks:

1. The main suspect has been traced and is _____ arrest.
2. You will receive your new credit card _____ post.
3. The politician was nervous _____ the upcoming election.
4. They were relying _____ him to find a solution.
5. The police are warning householders to beware _____ thieves after a series of burglaries in the area.
6. I need some advice _____ which car to buy.
7. Don't blame Ted _____ the accident - it's not his fault.
8. The child was bored _____ his new toy after a few hours of playing with it.
9. Susan blames her lack of independence _____ her mother.
10. Fred is brilliant _____ Physics.
11. When Tom is angry, he is capable _____ saying rude things.
12. _____ second thoughts, I'd rather not go to the party.
13. My name is Nicholas - or Nick _____ short.
14. You have to pay a deposit _____ arrival at the hotel.

After finishing the task, enjoy the view:

Ramenskoye in winter.