

Comparative and Superlative

Read the following information about animals and complete the sentences (comparative or superlative).

ELEPHANT

Lifespan: 60-70 years
Age: 37 years old
Weight: 7 000 kg
Length: 7.5 metros
Population: 1.3 million Characteristics:
intelligent, sensitive, wild, sociable, friendly, with a good memory.

HIPPOPOTAMUS

Lifespan: 80-100 years
Age: 10 years old
Weight: 500 kg
Length: 4.2 metros
Population: 300 000
Characteristics:
aggressive, unfriendly, wild, lonely, a good swimmer.

LION

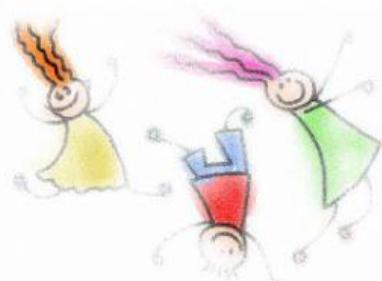

Lifespan: 25-30 years
Age: 18 years old
Weight: 250 kg
Length: 2 metros
Population: 21 000
Characteristics:
adventurous, fast, wild, proud, a good hunter, strong.

COMPARATIVE

- Lions have a _____ (short) lifespan than elephants.
- Elephants live _____ (long) than lions.
- Elephants are _____ (intelligent) than hippopotamus.

SUPERLATIVE

- The elephant is _____ (big) of the three.
- The lion is _____ (light).
- The elephant is _____ (heavy).
- The hippopotamus is _____ (young).

d) Lions are _____ (good) hunters than hippopotamus.

e) The hippopotamus in the picture is _____ (young) than the elephant.

f) The elephant is _____ (sociable) than the hippopotamus.

g) The hippopotamus has a _____ (bad) memory than elephant.

e) The lion is _____ (proud).

f) The hippopotamus has _____ (long) lifespan.

g) The elephant is _____ (young).