Fun Jobs

Do you like ice cream? There's a perfect job for you. Be an ice cream taste tester! Ice cream taste testers eat ice cream every day. They find the best flavors for new types of ice cream. To find these delicious flavors, they travel around the world!

If you like to ride your bike, how about being a bike messenger? Bike messengers ride their bikes and take packages to people. Because large cities are very crowded, cars often can't go very fast. That's why people use bike messengers!
