

LISTENING

Listen to a radio programme about music and fashion. Choose the correct answers.

- 1 Before the 1950s
 - a teenagers wore lots of different styles of clothes.
 - b teenagers didn't follow fashions at all.
 - c teenagers all wore clothes that looked alike.
- 2 In the 1950s for the first time young British men
 - a listened to music.
 - b heard American music.
 - c had extra cash to use.
- 3 The Teds wore
 - a narrow pants and long jackets.
 - b wide trousers and long jackets.
 - c narrow trousers and short jackets.
- 4 Heavy metal
 - a started in Britain in the 70s.
 - b was very popular in America in the early 70s.
 - c became fashionable among the Teds.
- 5 When punk was popular in Britain,
 - a nobody listened to heavy metal.
 - b many people listened to heavy metal.
 - c all people preferred heavy metal.

Listen again. Are the statements true (T) or false (F)?

1.	People's taste in music didn't influence their clothes before the 1950s.	TRUE	FALSE
2.	The Teds usually met at each other's homes.	TRUE	FALSE
3.	There was never any violence between the different gangs of Teds.	TRUE	FALSE
4.	When rock and roll began, the new American look for bad boys was long hair.	TRUE	FALSE
5.	According to Heather, punks changed the hair colour.	TRUE	FALSE