

1. Match the correct requests.

a)	My boss said: "Arrive on time for the meeting"	→
b)	My doctor said: "Drink at least six glasses of water a day"	→
c)	My teacher told me: "Hand in your homework before Friday"	→
d)	My coach said: "Don't miss practice again"	→
e)	My neighbor told me: "Don't leave your bike in the apartment hall"	→
f)	My roommate asked me: "Can you pick up some food on the way home?"	→
g)	My brother asked me: "Can you not tell mom about my new girlfriend?"	→

He said not to miss practice again.

She asked me to pick up some food on the way home.

She told me to hand in my homework before Friday.

She said to drink at least six glasses of water a day.

She said to arrive on time for the meeting.

He told me not to leave my bike in the apartment hallway.

He asked me not to tell mom about his new girlfriend.

2. From the previous activity, respond the questions.

a) Which sentences are expressing POSITIVE ORDERS?

b) Which sentences are expressing NEGATIVE ORDERS?

c) Which ones are QUESTIONS?

Culture note:

HE TOLD ME

SHE ASKED ME

HE SAID

NOT: ~~HE SAID ME.~~

3. Click YES or NO on the following questions.

Write the correct answers.

a) Do we use TOLD with POSITIVE ORDERS?

b) Do we use ASKED with NEGATIVE ORDERS?

c) Do we use SAID with QUESTIONS?

4. Write ASKED, TOLD, or SAID.

a) Don't leave your shoes out of the closet.

My mom _____ me not to leave my shoes out of the closet.

b) Can you help me move this sofa?

She _____ me to help her move the sofa.

c) Please, buy some milk; the kid wants to drink a milkshake.

He _____ to buy some milk for the kid.