

1. Match the correct requests.

a)	My boss said: "Arrive on time for the meeting"	→	He said not to miss practice again.
b)	My doctor said: "Drink at least six glasses of water a day"	→	She asked me to pick up some food on the way home.
c)	My teacher told me: "Hand in your homework before Friday"	→	She told me to hand in my homework before Friday.
d)	My coach said: "Don't miss practice again"	→	She said to drink at least six glasses of water a day.
e)	My neighbor told me: "Don't leave your bike in the apartment hall"	→	She said to arrive on time for the meeting.
f)	My roommate asked me: "Can you pick up some food on the way home?"	→	He told me not to leave my bike in the apartment hallway.
g)	My brother asked me: "Can you not tell mom about my new girlfriend?"	→	He asked me not to tell mom about his new girlfriend.

2. From the previous activity, respond the questions.

a) Which sentences are expressing POSITIVE ORDERS?

b) Which sentences are expressing NEGATIVE ORDERS?

c) Which ones are QUESTIONS?

Culture note:

HE TOLD ME

SHE ASKED ME

HE SAID      NOT: HE SAID ME.

3. Click YES or NO on the following questions.

Write the correct answers.

a) Do we use TOLD with POSITIVE ORDERS?  YES  NO

b) Do we use ASKED with NEGATIVE ORDERS?  YES  NO

c) Do we use SAID with QUESTIONS?  YES  NO

4. Write ASKED, TOLD, or SAID.

a) Don't leave your shoes out of the closet.

My mom _____ me not to leave my shoes out of the closet.

b) Can you help me move this sofa?

She _____ me to help her move the sofa.

c) Please, buy some milk; the kid wants to drink a milkshake.

He _____ to buy some milk for the kid.