There is increasing concern among your local community regarding how little children and teenagers play outside any more. They seem to be stupefied by smartphones, tables and every other device they can lay their hands and eyes on. As a local leader, your community expects you to write a proposal to revert this trend and help minors lead a healthier lifestyle.

In your proposal, you should state how we have reached such a situation, explain the main actions that ought to be taken and suggest the best course of action to achieve the goal.
