SONG

It's been for so long
I barely remember when the sun was bright and the world was right I've tears I didn't know I had Some nights I just on and prayed for dawn
God has promise me this, One day the clouds will lift

Chorus

He said He would, my mourning dancing
He said He would turn my sorrow into joy His promise is that everyday His mercy will be new and I believe that He will Just what He said He would do

So let this storm do what it will Gonna trusting God is in control
I will rest my soul and I'll be standing when the storm is I'll His glory come when this is done
I know He'll do what He says so I will not

Chorus

When it, all hope is lost
I will, His face because

Chorus

He would do
He'll do what He He would do
