

Phonetics 3: /t, ð, f, tʃ, ʃ, ʒ, ŋ, g, dʒ/

1. These words are pronounced with the sound /t/.
Identify the word where T, TT or TH represent a different consonant sound.

Thames    fatter    Thompson    Thomas    cat    tell    think

2. These words are pronounced with the sound /ð/.
Identify the word where TH represents a different consonant sound.

this    they    the    that    thin    although    father

3. These words are pronounced with the sound /ð/.
Identify the word where TH represents a different consonant sound.

seventh    with    mother    further    those    their    breathe

4. These words are pronounced with the sound /f/.
Identify the word where PH, F or GH represent a different consonant sound.

photo    shepherd    funny    laugh    cough    knife    dwarf

5. CH, TCH, CZ, and T all represent the sound /tʃ/ in these words, except in one of them, where they represent the sound /k/. Which one is it?

chimney    teach    watch    nature    future    Czech

6. These words are pronounced with the sound /ʃ/.
Identify the word where SH, S or CH represent a different consonant sound.

fish sure sugar shame television machine milkshake

7. These words are pronounced with the sound /ʒ/.
Identify the word where SH, S or CH represent a different consonant sound.

pleasure measure leisure treasure pressure illusion confusion

8. These words are pronounced with the sound /ŋ/.
Identify the word where N or NG represent a different consonant sound.

think pink thing gong sing sink angel

9. These words are pronounced with the sound /g/.
Identify the word where G represents a different consonant sound.

give girl pig pigeon get forget forgive

10. These words are pronounced with the sound /dʒ/.
Identify the word where G or J represent a different consonant sound.

Egyptian jump gypsy jam ghost journey George