Nouns

Directions: Click on each word in the sentence that is a noun. For the FIRST noun only, identify each category to which it belongs.

Hint: Each noun will have more than one category.

	Common	Proper	Concrete	Abstract	Compound	Collective
Example: The large crowd cheered for Mr. Williams during his lecture about freedom.	X		X			X
1. His pride annoyed the other members of his team.
2. New York City delayed the opening of school because of the flood during August.
3. I am planning to visit my sister-in-law on Thursday.
4. The United States Army was quick to react to the threat posed to the country.
5. Our orchestra won several awards last year in the national competition.
6. Traditionally, the idea of home is used symbolically throughout classic literature.
7. In modern Greece, many poems are still sung to the music of a lyre.
8. Quite often, his fear of heights kept him from going on hikes in the mountains.
9. After running very quickly, the heart will start to beat faster.
10. Saint Mark's Square is often very busy during tourist season.
11. The beautiful grandeur of the Sierra Nevada draws many photographers every year.
12. Captain America and Bucky fought together in World War II against the Nazis.
13. Do you believe that justice can be denied?
14. The four founding members of the Tarrant County Garden Club meet on Friday.
15. A huge flock of seagulls attacked Marty while he ate lunch on the beach.						