Adjectives and Adverbs

ADJECTIVES

Directions: Click on the selected words that function as adjectives in the following sentences.

1. Older people tire more easily than the youth of today.
2. The spotted owl nests near the outer pasture of our Michigan farm.
3. Endlessly active, the toddler could run very fast.
4. Since time immemorial, people have gambled on fighting animals and random events.
5. Though the store clerk was helpful, he ultimately refused to answer the final question.
6. The French students quietly filed through six large, national museums in a single day.
7. Genuinely perplexed, the prospective buyer was quite surprised by his response.
8. According to my elderly uncle, the young woman had the worst manners imaginable.
9. Marc did not want to read something scary before going to sleep.
10. The youngest member of the garden club is much older than I remembered.

ADVERBS

Directions: Click on the selected words that function as adverbs in the following sentences.

1. The council members meet twice a month to regularly review the guidelines.
2. You really should see the very tall tree that seemingly grew overnight in the backyard.
3. Steven is honest and never tells lies, but everyone sometimes makes mistakes.
4. Yesterday, the music concert was loud and incredibly entertaining for everyone.
5. Neighborhood children play outside, but when it rains, they always play inside.
6. Charles sang the solo perfectly, and the audience applauded very loudly afterward.
7. I can get you the light blue shoes tomorrow, but we only have the red ones today.
8. Lenore moved to Brazil immediately and lived there with her daughter and husband.
9. Set the box anywhere and then continue with your chores.
10. A person should judge fairly, speak truthfully, and never waver from high standards.