

July 31st, 2020

Adverbs that tell How.

Write the adverb that tells about the underlined verb in each sentence.

1. They tied their laces tightly. _____
2. Lynne and Lamont moved cautiously at first. _____
3. Lamont watched the skaters carefully. _____
4. Then he skated effortlessly around the rink. _____
5. Proudly, Lynne spun on the ice. _____

Read the following sentences. Look at the underlined adverb. Choose how, where, or when according to what the adverb refers to.

1. Is too snowy to leave tonight.

How          Where          When

2. Slowly, she moved to a bench.

How          Where          When

3. We can build a shelter there.

How          Where          When

4. First, we will make a shelter.

How          Where          When

5. We can skate nearby.

How

Where

When

6. She arrived at the bench safely.

How

Where

When

1. It's too snowy to leave tonight.

_____

2. First we will make a shelter

_____