

First Conditional and Future Time Clauses

Choose the correct option to complete the chat: present simple, imperative, or will+ infinitive.

Annie - 20:05

Katie! How's it going? I'm studying so hard, but I need a break. Do you want to meet tomorrow evening? We could have a pizza and a chat.

I _____ you tomorrow when I _____ home, OK? xx

Katie - 20:08

Hi, Annie! I'm studying too!! My history exam is tomorrow afternoon. I'm really worried about it. OK for tomorrow evening, but not too early. I _____ you a message when the exam _____ . xx

Annie - 20:09

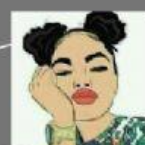

OK. _____ come to my place as soon as you _____. We can phone for takeaway pizza :)

Katie - 20:10

OK. But _____ the pizza place until I _____ there. I might be late.

I've been thinking, if you _____ free when all our exams _____ over in a couple of weeks, why don't we go away somewhere to celebrate?

Annie - 20:11

Great idea! We could go away for a few days to relax! But I _____ to go away unless I _____ all the exams :(

We can talk about it when we _____ each other tomorrow night. xx

Katie - 20:13

OK. Time to get back to work. If I _____ a bit more tonight, I _____ any chance of passing history tomorrow. Wish me luck!! xx

Education Vocabulary

Move the words and drop them in the correct sentence.

CHEAT

EDUCATED

REVISE

FAIL

BE EXPELLED

PASS

BEHAVE

TAKE

BROUGHT UP

1. If you _____ badly, the headteacher will call your parents.
2. He studied a lot, so he'll probably _____ all his exams.
3. She was _____ by her grandparents in Oberá.
4. I never _____ in exams, I'm afraid of getting caught.
5. We won't _____ this test. We've worked really hard!
6. Sally was _____ at a religious school.
7. You might _____ if you do something terribly wrong at school.
8. Can you help me _____ for my English exam?
9. We have to _____ an important Physics exam tomorrow. We're so nervous!

Write numbers from 1-5 to order the following education levels.

- a. College
- b. Kindergarten
- c. Middle School
- d. High School
- e. Elementary School

