

Let's practice!

Expressing regrets and unreal situations.

We use past perfect in the condition clause: → if I had skipped breakfast...

And would have + verb -ed/3rd column in the result clause → ... I wouldn't have arrived late to school.

1. Complete the sentence using 3rd conditional structures.

- If I _____ (study) more, I would have passed the exam.
- If you _____ (not watch) TV until so late, you wouldn't have overslept this morning.
- If my mother had bought more eggs, I _____ (make) a spongy cake.
- My sister _____ (travel) to Spain if Covid 19 hadn't spread so fast.
- My favorite sports team _____ (win) the tournament if the referee had seen the goalkeeper committing a foul.

2. Read the situations below. Re-write the situations using 3rd conditional structures.

Example: I didn't skip breakfast, so I arrived late.

If I had skipped breakfast, I wouldn't have arrived late to school.

- a. I didn't have enough money. I couldn't buy a new cellphone.

- b. I broke my leg. I couldn't play in the hockey tournament.

- c. My mother didn't go to the park. She didn't see the accident.

- d. I closed the door. My dog didn't escape.

- e. We saw the movie. The cinema was open.
