

Complete the table with the adjective form of these nouns. Add the suffixes FUL or AL to form the adjectives.

success		peace
nature		wonder
profession		power
music		politics

Complete the text with the best adjective

People become <sup>1</sup>..... (nature / profession) musicians for different reasons. Some want to be famous, get rich and be <sup>2</sup>..... (politics / success). Others want to entertain and make <sup>3</sup>..... (peace / beauty) music. Others want to change the world and their songs have a <sup>4</sup>..... (politics / wonder) message.

- Aretha Franklin's song Respect (1967) is still popular today because of Aretha's <sup>5</sup>..... (wonder / success) voice and the song's feminist message.
- John Lennon's song Imagine (1971) asked people to imagine a <sup>6</sup>..... (power / peace) world without war.
- The Special AKA's song Free Nelson Mandela (1984) was about South Africa's most famous political prisoner. Ten years later, Mandela was president: the most <sup>7</sup>..... (music / power) person in his country.
- Radiohead's Idioteque (2000) and Sail to the Moon (2003) are inspired by the environment and ask people to protect the <sup>8</sup>..... (politics / nature) world for future generations.