

English Alphabet

Write vowels and consonants in alphabetical order in the boxes below.

Vowels

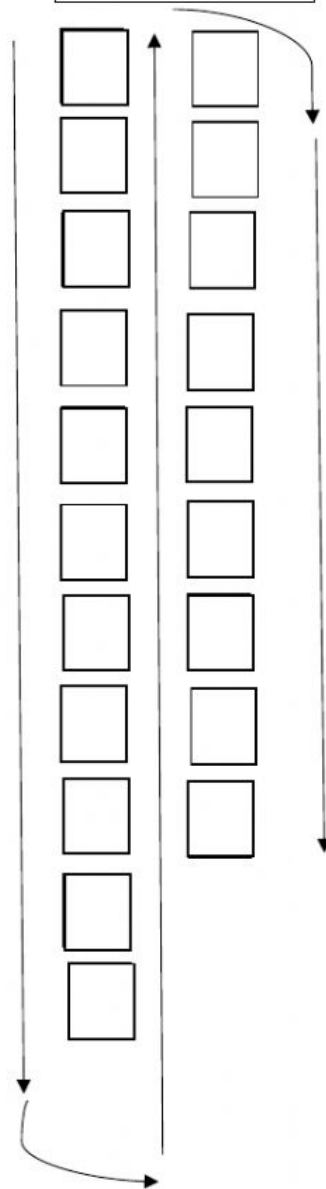

A vertical column of five empty square boxes for writing vowels. To the left of the boxes is a long vertical arrow pointing downwards.

A single empty square box, likely for a space character or a separator.

Consonants

Two vertical columns of empty square boxes for writing consonants. The left column has 12 boxes and the right column has 10 boxes. To the left of the boxes is a long vertical arrow pointing downwards. To the right of the boxes is a long vertical arrow pointing downwards. A curved arrow at the top points from the right column to the left column, and a curved arrow at the bottom points from the left column to the right column, indicating a continuous flow.
