

A- CHOOSE which answer (A, B, C or D) best fits each space.

DO WE NEED TO READ BOOKS? ARE THEY OBSOLETE?

Is it worth _____ (1- to read/ read/ reading/) books, nowadays _____ (2- in/ or/ why/ since) there are so many other forms of _____ (3- entertain/ entertainment/ entertained/ entertaining) ? Some people say that even _____ (4- paperback/ the / so/ when) books are expensive, and not everyone can _____ (5- borrow/ buy/ take/ lend) books from a library. They might add that perhaps it's more _____ (6- excited/ excitable/ exciting/ excitement) to relax and watch their favourite films or television _____ (7- ones/ programmes/ episodes/ cereals) _____ (8- in/ at/ on/ with) their mobiles.

All that may be true, but recently electronic book readers (such as Amazon kindle readers) have made books _____ (9- too/ public/ live/ popular) again. Perhaps because reading encourages the reader to use their _____ (10- image/ imagination/ index/ preface).

And it's flexible too. You can read a _____ (11- capital/ head/ chapter/ cover) of a book, or just a few pages, and then stop. Of course, it may be so _____ (12- current/ imagined/ interest/ gripping) that you can't stop reading! You might get really involved _____ (13- on/ of/ in/ about) reading a good crime _____ (14- history/ novel/ booklet/poetry) or a book which gives you interesting _____ (15- advices / advise/ idea/ information) If you find it hard to choose, you can read _____ (16- announcements/ gossip/ reviews/ prefaces) , or ask friends for ideas. Personally, I can't _____ (17- do/make/ have/ take) without books, but I can _____ (18- pick/ look/ give/ turn) up television easily enough.

B- Use the word given in capitals at the end of each line to form a word that fits in the space in the same line.
