

LISTENING PRACTICE -- TRAVELING

I. When we talk about traveling we frequently use the verb "stay". "Stay" can mean different things, for example: 1) to visit, or 2) to sleep in a hotel or a friend's house.

Example #1 -- How long did you stay in New York? I stayed in New York for one week.

Example #2 -- Where did you stay? I stayed in a hotel for 2 nights and at my cousin's house for 5 nights.

Example #3 -- When you come to Seattle, do you want to stay at my house? (Do you want to sleep at my house?)

II. Read the questions BEFORE you listen to the audio.

1. What food is popular in Spain?

2. How was the weather in Spain?

3. How long did she stay in Belize?

4. How long did she stay in Indonesia?

5. Did she surf in Indonesia?

6. Which country is her favorite?

III. Now listen to the audio. (A new window will open. Close the dialogue box. Click Play on Video)

IV. When you finish listening, go back and answer the questions.
