My parents are very funny and energetic people. When everybody is at home, we like to talk about everything. We play different games together. We also like to walk in the street. When we have time, we drive to parks, or such interesting places like big supermarkets, cafes, the centre of the city.

I've also got grandparents, but they don't live with us. We visit them very often. My family is great, I love all of them very much.
