The illustration shows a family of six people and a dog inside a large grey circle. The family members are: a grandfather on the left with glasses and a brown sweater; a mother in the center with red hair and a blue top; a father on the right with brown hair and a green striped shirt; a grandmother on the far right with white hair and glasses, wearing an orange top; a young boy in the front left with blonde hair and a red striped shirt; and a young girl in the front right with brown hair and a purple top. A small brown dog is sitting in the center. Surrounding the circle are seven empty rectangular boxes with arrows pointing to each family member. Above the circle, there are two groups of three speaker icons, indicating audio clues for each side of the family.
